MUNICIPAL WAR IN LEWISTON

"System of City Government Does Not Bring All Harmony."

"Influence As Factor Is Resented"

"Repudiate Effort to Bring in Politics."

BY C. E. ARNEY.

To the Tribune.
LEWISTON, April 22.—Lewiston is throes of municipal dissensions. Tuesday is under fire principally because of the discharge of his former police, Masters.
The city of Lewiston has adopted the system of legislation and there has been bitter contention over the matter of the chief of police. ## WATER FOR SCHOOLS BEFORE THE BOARD

Some of the Members Object to Paying Bill Presented by City.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 22.—The right of the waterworks department of the city to charge the city schools for water rentals was the subject of a warm discussion at the meeting of the board of education tonight. The matter came up on a bill for $1500 presented by the waterworks department against the city schools for last year. The members of the board of education object to the bill on the ground that it is excessive, since only $150 had been paid as water rentals each year before the city bought the waterworks system. City Attorney James Devine, Superintendent Charles H. Kirchner of the Ogden waterworks department and the members of the waterworks committee of the city council were present to discuss the matter with the board of education. Some members of the board flatly refused to pay the bill and the matter was left undecided until next Wednesday night, when a special meeting will be held.

The estimate of the cost for maintaining the city schools for next year was fixed at $115,500 and the clerk of the board was instructed to inform the county assessor, county clerk and county treasurer of the estimate so that when the tax levy is fixed the county officials can govern themselves accordingly. The treasurer reported that the second appropriation of the state tax due Ogden for 1909, for public schools, amounting to $112,225, had been received from State Superintendent A. C. Nelson. The receipt of $6232.08 from rentals on state land was also acknowledged.

ANOTHER OLD PIONEER CROSSES GREAT DIVIDE

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—Another of the old pioneers of Weber county has gone to his reward. After a long illness from general debility, Alexander Brown died at his home, 506 Second street, last night, surrounded by the members of his family. Alexander Brown was born in North Carolina and came to Utah, July 29, 1847, settling in Salt Lake City, with many other members of the Mormon battalion which crossed the plains under the leadership of his father, Captain James Brown. During the spring of 1849, attracted by the influx of gold-seekers, he was hurrying to California, he joined the throng in the Sunset state until 1858, when he returned to Ogden, where he had since lived. Six children, twenty-seven grandchildren and twenty-six great-grandchildren survive him. The children now living are Mrs. Mary E. Taplin, Mrs. Lois Hutchins, Riley Brown and Mrs. Effie Allen, Ogden, and James L. Brown of Idaho.

Work Being Pushed.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—The construction of the freight work for the additional track near Rambo, at the location where most of the damage usually results to the Luch cutoff after the heavy wind storms, is being pushed forward under the direction of Assistant Engineer Campbell. Eighty men, divided into three camps, are employed on the job, which involves mammoth pile drivers are being used to drive in the heavy timber supports.

Dr. Webb on Tour.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—Accompanied by Division Superintendent W. M. Jeffers, who will act as his escort over the Utah division of the Union Pacific, Dr. Seward Webb, chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central system, and a close relative of the Vanderbilt family, left for the east this morning for an inspection of the Vanderbilt railroad interests.

Stricken on a Train.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—Suffering from typhoid fever, Jack Berryhill was taken from a Union Pacific train this afternoon to the Ogden general hospital for treatment. Berryhill was taken ill en route from his home in Mississippi to Salt Lake City, where he had secured employment by the Oregon Short Line. Before reaching Ogden and while he was lying here in his berth, a nurse containing $60 and two suit cases were stolen from him. The railroad officials are making an investigation.

Novel Programme.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—An entertainment of a novel nature has been arranged by the instructors of the State School for the Deaf and Blind for the evening of April 27. The deaf and blind pupils will take part in a physical education demonstration, which will consist of calisthenics, drills and fancy dances. The blind orchestra will give a special programme during the evening.

Held on Suspicion.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—Morris Stern was arrested this afternoon and is being held at the police station pending an investigation into the mysterious disappearance of a pocketbook containing $35, which was stolen from the residence of Mrs. D. C. Eccles early in the day. Stern had been employed at the residence.

Trial Is Postponed.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—The trial of Charles J. Dwyer, which was begun in the district court yesterday, was postponed this afternoon until next Tuesday.

BITTER IN COURT: BASEBALL EXCUSE

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, April 22.—A jury was called in the district court today to try the case of Spanish Fork City against William M. Thomas, on appeal from Justice Frost's court at Spanish Fork. Thomas, convicted in the lower court of using abusive language to Z. Coltrin, a policeman, by telling him he was too fresh. Policeman Coltrin had previously arrested a son of Thomas, calling Chester Coltrin, the policeman's son, a liar. The trouble grew out of the prohibition mixup at Spanish Fork.

Six additional jurors were drawn this morning to appear forthwith in the district court, as follows: Hyrum Hutton, Samuel Parry, Robert Boardman, Henry Ellison, William Fram and John Bott, Jr.
When Henry Ellison appeared in court he went straight to Judge Booth and earnestly begged to be excused from jury service on the grounds that he was billed to appear in a baseball game to be played at Payson between Taylor Brothers' employees of this city and the Payson league team. Judge Booth stated to the attorneys present that, while Mr. Ellison's excuse was not a legal one, the court did not feel like blocking the national game, and as the attorneys in the case on trial also felt patriotic, Mr. Ellison was excused.

THE PROVO BOULEVARD: FINE BUSINESS DONE

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, April 22.—The committee having charge of the building of the Provo-Olmsted boulevard met last night and decided to go ahead with the work at once, and to complete the road this summer. James L. Meldrum was engaged to supervise the work, which will be carried on according to the plans and methods outlined by Mr. Webb, the engineer who was sent here by the national good roads department to start the road-building properly. When completed the boulevard will be the finest piece of

In the meantime Robnett had journeyed to Pittsburgh to finance on a large scale some irrigation projects about Spokane and to the smoky city he was followed by President Kettchenbach who procured from him all the assets he had, in addition to a confession of his wrong doing with the bank.

Up to date Chapman has not been indicted and the charge is openly made that both he and Robnett have been promised immunity for turning state's evidence against the officials of the bank, in these embezzlement charges.

During all this time the government has had experts examining into the affairs of the bank, preparatory to the calling of the case, which is expected to come on soon for hearing in the federal court.

The bank has been sold by the Kettchenbachs and others of the original stockholders to the Union Security company of Spokane.

Robnett has removed to Spokane. During all the years of his interesting life in Lewiston he was one of the pillars of the Methodist Episcopal church, and active in the Sunday school work of the city and of that portion of the state.

The county commissioners have let a contract to widen the dugway leading to Provo bench from Olmsted to twenty feet and making the grade less than 5 per cent.

The Provo merchants say that business has been 25 per cent better during January, February and March of this year than the corresponding period last year. Dealing in mining stocks has perceptibly declined in Provo during the last year and speculators are turning their attention and investments to land. Fruit lands, especially, have made a decided advance in the past two years.

Lella Jones, the 2-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones of the Fifth ward, died this morning from convulsions. The family recently moved here from Colorado.

Louis E. Meyers has returned from a trip to the east, and with him John O. Keys of New York has come to Provo to look over the country heretofore, with some idea of entering the electrical field in Utah.

Toole's Fire Apparatus Comes.

TOOLE, April 22.—Chief R. H. Hancock of this city is rejoicing in the arrival of the new fire apparatus ordered from New Jersey. The station house is preparing for its housing and care. The volunteer fire department is jubilant, and preparations for action are on. The department hopes to be in good condition with new uniforms to take part in the big celebration to be held here July 23, and a challenge for a fire run will be issued to other departments of the state, with valuable prizes to be won at that time.

Sugar Factory Meeting.

Special to The Tribune.
RICHFIELD, April 22.—A meeting of the citizens of Richfield interested in the erection of a sugar factory was held at the court house Thursday afternoon. Messrs. George and Parley Austin, representing the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, addressed the meeting. It was well attended, and there was considerable interest manifested in the matter.

ESCAPED CONVICTS STILL ELUDE CAPTURE

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 22.—Theodore Murdoch and Frank Grigwold, two of the six convicts who escaped from the federal prison yesterday, are still at large tonight. Twenty-five guards are still searching for them.

VALUABLE INFORMATION

How to Make Excellent Medicine for Kidneys, Liver and Bladder.
The formula given below was recently published in this paper and hundreds of people were cured by it. Six ounces good pure gin, one-half ounce murax compound, one-half ounce fluid extract buchu. Mix these ingredients well together, and take one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day after meals. This will soon cure lame back, rheumatic pains in the joints, highly colored urine, scanty, frequent or burning urine, dizziness, pain in the head, which are well known signs of kidney, liver and bladder troubles.
The ingredients can be secured at any well stocked drug store.

CASINO—Fisher's vaudeville. Matinee, 2. Evening, 7.

Motion Pictures.
SHUBERT, LUNA, ISIS, ELITE THEATERS—Motion pictures, continuous performance, afternoon and evening.

The last two performances of the famous racing play, "His Last Dollar," will be given at the Colonial this afternoon and evening. David Higgins, who is starring in the play, made himself quite a favorite upon his first visit to Salt Lake, and crowded houses have been the rule at every performance this week.

Those who enjoy watching clever dancing will be delighted with the work of Emma Seigel and John Hathaway at the Mission theater. For gracefulness and life this pair puts a whole lot of other dancers seen in Salt Lake this season in the deep deep shade. They dance with a vim that is good to see. Special Roosevelt matinees are scheduled for the Mission today. The first extra performance will be given at 10:30 o'clock this morning and will be followed by matinees every thirty minutes until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The last performance of the excellent bill running this week at the Orpheum will be given this afternoon and evening. Beginning with tomorrow's matinee there will be an entirely new bill that includes several of the best acts on the circuit.

Two more performances of "Esmeralda" will be given at the Bungalow, this afternoon and evening, the latter closing the engagement at the Bungalow of Blanche Douglas, Noel Travers and their supporting company. A big advance sale is reported on today's matinee and it is expected the company will close with two big audiences to its credit.

With a matinee today and a performance tonight the last performance of "Lost Paradise" will be given. Theodore Lorch and company are giving a first-class performance of this great labor drama, and those who have not yet seen it will do well to do so, as it is a play that will appeal with great force to all classes and especially the working class. Beginning with the regular Sunday matinee, Theodore Lorch and his supporting company will present for the first time in Salt Lake the great circus drama, "The Call of the Circus." The piece will be presented with all requirements, and a first-class performance will be given. Special scenery has been provided, and all stage effects have been carefully worked out.

At the Casino this week's bill is, like all others at this playhouse, up at the top. The vaudeville acts are headliners and the pictures are first-class.

At all of Mr. Florence's theaters, excepting the Shubert, there will be an entire change of programme today. None of the subjects which are included in the new bills have ever before been shown in this city, and as usual none of the programmes conflict with each other. Some great feature productions are featured as headliners in each of the houses, among which are the following: "Othello," "Richelleu," "Delhi," "Thou Shalt Not," "St. Elmo," "Her Sweet Revenge" and many others. After tomorrow evening's performance the original copy of "Roosevelt in Africa" will be taken from the Shubert theater and started out on a circuit which includes all the leading moving picture houses in the Intermountain territory.
